五、閱讀測驗(共5題,每題2分,共10分)

說明:下列 46 至 50 題,每題均有(A)、(B)、(C)、(D)四個選項,請依文章內容,選出一個最恰當的答案。 Many people dream of being a millionaire five days a week in Taiwan since the lottery catches the attention of many people. Yet, only very few people can make their dreams come true. Moreover, like the two sides of the same coin, there are two sides of lottery winning.

Indeed, when you win the lottery, you receive a large amount of money. With the money, you can do many things which seemed difficult or even impossible for you before you win the lottery. First of all, you can pay all your debts if you had borrowed money from your friends or banks. Then, with the money, you can buy whatever you want although it is very expensive, including gold or diamond. With the money, you can actually plan your own career and become the master of your life.

However, the money can also change your life in another way. Possibly, you can spend much money without careful thought and even waste money. To you, a lottery winner, a penny is not important anymore. To make it worse, your friends and relatives may eagerly want to borrow money from you without any intention of giving it back. Sometimes, the winning can even turn into disaster because you may be threatened and kidnapped by villains who want to share the fortune with you. With this money, your attitude toward life may change and you may make a mistake to try to solve all problems with money.

Money is something, but not everything. Therefore, when you win the lottery, you are lucky. You should make the most of every penny and avoid getting lost in life with the large amount of money. However, for those who don't win the lottery, life is still wonderful. In addition to money, there are many things in life for us to pay attention to and to cherish.
